

BODYSHOP ALLIANCE

Leadership and Management training for Bodyshop Owners and Managers

You will develop the leadership skills that will enable you to run the business that you have always wanted.

You will learn how to generate the positive attitudes and behaviours in your staff that will improve morale and increase productivity as well as quality.

You will understand how to use your time more effectively, letting go of the things that others can handle and concentrating on the ideas to grow and improve the business.

Modular Leadership Programme

The following six day, modules will ideally combine to build a strong foundation for the leadership of any business.

Ideally a group of people would complete the journey of all six modules together which would add a very strong experiential learning component.
