

How important is On-time delivery to your Bodyshop business

Meeting commitments has never been more critical within a Bodyshop, it drives throughput, protects profitability and ensures that management time is focused on making improvements rather than managing disappointed or inconvenienced customers. Confidence in meeting deadlines can breathe new life into a business and can reduce internal operational friction and cultivate a positive cultural change within the business.

- Happier customers
- Reduced operational friction
- Staff harmony
- Reduced noise levels within the business
- Increased throughput and profitability

Today's customers lead busy lives and the ability to plan effectively and accurately for the duration of a vehicle repair relies heavily on you making realistic commitment and more importantly sticking to it. It reduces the stress and uncertainty and ensures that customer's expectations are met on time every time.
